1. Did you learn anything from this movie? If you did, what was it?

2. Was there something you didn't understand about the film? What was that?

3. What did you like best about the movie? Why?

4. What did you like least about the film? Why?

5. Who was your favorite character in the movie? Why?

6. Who was your least favorite character in the film? Why?

7. If you had a chance to ask a character in this movie a question, what would it be?

8. Did any of the characters in this movie make you angry? Why?

9. If a psychologist were to look at the actions of [select a character] what do you think the psychologist would say about that character? Describe specific statements or actions that you think the psychologist would be interested in and the conclusions that you think the psychologist would draw from those statements or actions.

10. If a priest, minister, or rabbi were to look at the actions of [select a character] what do you think the priest, minister, or rabbi would say about them? Describe specific statements or actions that you think the priest, minister or rabbi would be interested in and the conclusions that you think he or she would draw from those statements or actions.

11. What comment is the author trying to make about the culture of the characters in this story?

12. What motivates the major characters?