

Causes and Events Leading to the Civil War Vocabulary Sort

State's rights	Slavery	Uncle Tom's Cabin
A difference in the way that people who lived in the North and people who lived in the South lived.	This is the difference in opinion because of how the people of the North and South lived.	Many Southerners had the belief that states should have the final decision instead of the federal government.
The different ideas of how people in the North and People in the South earned money.	This is the difference in opinion of how the North and the South made their money.	How people in the North and people in the South understood and lived out the ideas in the Constitution.
Abolitionist	John Brown	Harpers ferry
A person who is against the idea of slavery.	This is how the North and South interpreted the Constitution.	This is an anti-slavery novel by Harriet Beecher Stowe.
This raid was important because it showed that people would use violence to end slavery.	This is the practice or the system of owning and using slaves to make money.	This person was responsible for a raid as a result of the abolitionist's feelings about slavery.
Cultural differences	Economic differences	Constitutional differences
The state of a human being owned by another human.	A novel that changed how Americans viewed slavery.	A person who favors the doing away with of slavery.
This is a city in Virginia that held a gun facility that was attacked by John Harper and his men.	Problems between these rights and federal rights were part of a Constitutional difference between Northerners and Southerners.	This person was an abolitionist who thought that fighting would if slavery in the United States.