

Eastern Europe and Western Russia

There are 21 countries in Eastern Europe. Find each of the countries below. Shade each country in a different color on the map and make the map key match. Write the initials of each country on the map.

Label the Atlantic Ocean, the Mediterranean Sea, the North Sea, the Baltic Sea, Adriatic Sea, the Black Sea, the Caspian Sea and the Sea of Azov.

The dotted line separates Europe and Asia. Label Europe and label Asia on the map.

Find and label the Ural Mountains, the Carpathian Mountains, and the Caucasus Mountains on the map. Label by name and with ^^^^^^ symbolizing mountains.

The Balkan Peninsula is another mountainous region in Eastern Europe. "Balkan" means "mountain" in Turkish. Circle the Balkan Peninsula on the map.

There are many important rivers in Eastern Europe and Russia. Locate the following and label them by name and with a blue line.

The Volga River, The Dnieper River, The Dniester River, and the Danube.

